

Wines by the Glass

White Wines

Steele, Chardonnay Cuvee, Lake County, California	2003	$8.	Bottle	$30.	Ripe, rich butter, peach, brown sugar, and caramel give way to a toasty, citrus finish.
Caymus, Conundrum, Rutherford, California	2002/03	$8.	Bottle	$30.	Identifying the grape varietals included in this wine is a conundrum, or puzzle, to be explored and enjoyed.
Kendall Jackson Vintner's Reserve, Santa Rosa	2002	$6.	Bottle	$21.	The quality of this Chardonnay is always consistent, and it remains a perpetual pleaser. Smooth and supple, with creamy pear, apple, and spice.
Hogue Cellars, Fume' Blanc, Washington	2003	$5.	Bottle	$18.	This crisp wine displays a round mouth-feel and bright fig, pear, and citrus flavors.
Mission Mountain, Johannisberg Riesling, WA/ID/MT	2001/02	$5.	Bottle	$16.	An off-dry selection made with Washington and Idaho grapes, bottled in Montana - notes of spice, apple, and peach.
Danzante, Pinot Grigio, Italy	2003	$5.	Bottle	$16.	A classic styled pinot grigio, this Italian white is filled with melon, crisp apple and notes of fig; excellent for light summer fare or a seafood salad; great value!

Red Wines

Kendall Jackson, Grand Reserve Cabernet, Santa Rosa	1999	$10.	Bottle	$40.	His "everyday" wines are always a hit, and this one soars above. Well-balanced, showcasing dusty currant, mineral, cedar and spicy, finishing with mild tannis. .
Dynamite, Cabernet Sonoma North Coast	2002	$8.	Bottle	$30.	This Cab is never a let-down. Blackberry, chocolate, and bing cherry flavors roll into a vanilla oak finish. WS rated 87.
Dynamite, Merlot, Sonoma North Coast	2001	$8.	Bottle	$30.	The '01 displays firm blackberry and currant flavors with oak and a little heat on the finish. Wine Spectator rated 87.
Ravenswood, Vintner's Blend Zinfandel, Sonoma	2001	$6.	Bottle	$22.	A popular Zin full of spice, mint, raspberry, and vanilla with game and oak notes. WS rated 86.
Echelon, Pinot Noir, Central Coast	2003	$6.	Bottle	$22.	A pretty Pinot Noir from California's Central Coast. This vintage is complex, yet fruit-forward, and complements a variety of foods.
Marietta, Old Vine Red Lot 33/34 California	NV	$5.	Bottle	$18.	A full-bodied, well-balanced beauty, with stunning dark purple color and a "supernose" of cherry, currant, and spice.
Rosemount, Grenache-Shiraz, South East Australia	2003	$5.	Bottle	$18.	Fresh and ripe, this palate-pleasing blend features spicy cherry flavors and cedar notes on the light finish.

Blush Wine

Beringer, White Zinfandel, Napa	2003	$4.	Bottle	$12.	A sweet and fruity selection with pleasant oak on the finish.
---------------------------------	------	------	--------	-------	---

Sparkling Wine

Kenwood, Cuvee Brut, Yalupa , Sonoma-187 ml bottle	NV		Bottle	$7.	Perfect for single-glass sipping.
--	----	--	--------	------	-----------------------------------

Champagne and Sparkling Wines

Moët & Chandon, Dom Perignon	France	1996	$190.
When the occasion calls for something special, this classic is perfect. Intense, with flavors of citrus and hazelnut. Wine Spectator rated 93.
Mumm, Cuvee, DVX	Napa	1997	$60.
Intense and complex, with spicy pear, ginger, apple, and citrus flavors. Wine Spectator rated 88.
Domaine Chandon, Blanc de Noirs	Carneros	NV	$30.
Firm apple, citrus, pear, and herb are the focus of this sparkler, which also exhibits bright acidity and a creamy texture. Wine Spectator rated 87.
Domaine Ste. Michelle, Cuvee Brut	Washington	NV	$19.
Gentle and spicy, with notes of peach and earth. Wine Spectator rated 87.
Freixenet, Cordon Negro Brut	Spain	NV	$15.
Creamy vanilla and apple flavors give way to a slightly sweet finish. Luxury without the expense! Wine Spectator rated 85.

Dessert Wines

A lovely way to complement a dessert or simply end a great meal...

Bonny Doon, Muscat Vin de Glacier	California	2001/02	$20.
This indulgence has peach, fig, hazelnut and slight citrus flavors. Great alone or with dessert. The '98 is Wine Spectator rated 89. (375 ml only)
Hogue Cellars, Late Harvest White Riesling	Washington	2002/03	$15.
Citrus, peach, and apricot flavors play on the tongue along with a generous mouthful of honey. While the Muscat wine above delivers the full "dessert wine" effect, this one is lighter and simpler. Perfect for dessert – or perfect with lighter desserts. The '01 is WS rated 87. (750 ml bottle)

We also offer a limited port and sherry selection.

Please inquire with your server.

Non-Alcohol Wines

Sutter Home Fre Chardonnay	California	2002	$12.
Sutter Home Fre White Zinfandel	California	2002	$12.

*"God in His goodness sent the grapes,
To cheer both great and small;
Little fools will drink too much,
And great fools not at all."*

~ Anonymous

Chardonnay

Of the New World Persuasion

Chalk Hill	Sonoma County	2000	$60.
One of our most popular Chardonnays! Offers elegant and complex toast, pear, pineapple, peach, vanilla, mineral, and juniper notes. WS 90
Arrowood	Réserve Spéciale	2000/01	$55.
This Reserve Chardonnay offers up wonderful, delicate aromas of peach, pear and melon, with hints of apple in the background. Honeydew melon and peach flavors mingle with rather pronounced clove and cinnamon spice on the palate, followed by a rich, lasting, creamy finish. WA 90
Cakebread Cellars	Napa Valley	2002	$55.
A new vintage ... Clean and refreshing, with a mix of apple, pear and persimmon. Holding a spicy note on the finish.
Grgich Hill	Napa Valley	2001	$54.
Crisp and refreshing with its zesty grapefruit, lemon-lime and tart pear flavors. It picks up a mineral and flinty tasty on the finish. WS 87
Mer Soleil	Monterey Bay, Central Coast	2001	$49.
Our "king" Chardonnay in a new vintage. Lush and complex, with fig, pineapple, pear, citrus and oak that give way to an elegant and lingering finish.
Arrowood	Sonoma County	1998/2002	$40.
The '98 is floral and vegetal, with attractive apple and spice flavors – and a Wine Spectator rating of 85. The '02 has a core of pear, apple & floral notes supported by light toasty oak finish. WS rating of 92.
Joseph Phelps	Los Carneros, California	1998	$35.
To a vibrant, earthy edge trickles flavors of citrus, pear, and nutmeg. Wine Spectator rated 87.
Sonoma Cutrer	Russian River Ranches, Sonoma	2001	$26.
		Half Bottle	$15.
Aromas of ripe pear and pineapple ... tongue-tantalizing flavors of red apple, peach, apricot, and subtle oak.
Greg Norman Estates	Yarra Valley, Australia	2001	$24.
Fore! If golf is your game, this could be your Chardonnay. From The Shark himself comes this pleasant wine from Down Under. It's very elegant, with citrus, and apricot fruit emerging nicely as flavors persist, getting better with each sip. WS 88
Benziger	Carneros, California	2001/03	$24.
An across-the-board pleasant Chardonnay, loaded with creamy pear, fig, and oak with a long finish. The 2001 is WS rated 88.
Argyle	Willamette Valley, Oregon	2000/01	$20.
The 2001 (WS rated 89) features green apple, floral and spice aromas, finishing with a touch of lime. You can't go wrong with this hot pick from a famous Oregon producer!

*"... When you draw the wine, let there be in your heart a song for each cup;
And let there be in the song a remembrance for the autumn days,
and for the vineyard, and for the winepress."
Kahlil Gibran ~ "Eating and Drinking," The Prophet*

Other New World Whites

(Sauvignon Blanc, Riesling, Gewurztraminer, and Such)

King Estate, Pinot Gris	Willamette Valley, Oregon	2001	$23.
Great with fresh fish entrees, this selection proves round, with spicy apple, pear, and melon notes.
Joseph Phelps, Pastiche	California	2001	$20.
An enticing blend of Chardonnay, Scheurebe (a German cross-varietal of Sylvaner and Riesling), Riesling, Semillon, Marsanne, Viognier, and Muscat with hints of spicy peach, apricot, and fig. Nicely balanced with subtle sweetness. A must-try!
Chateau St. Jean, Fume' Blanc	Sonoma County	2000	$20.
This light white from a famous producer is tangy with lemon, orange, passion fruit and nectarine flavors, ending with vanilla tones. WS 86
Rodney Strong, Sauvignon Blanc,	Charlotte's Home, Sonoma	2001	$18.
Signature grassy notes surround lemon, herb, gooseberry, and citrus, and vanilla flavors.
Geyser Peak, Sauvignon Blanc	Sonoma County	2002	$18.
This Sauvignon Blanc is crisp, light, refreshing, and racy – strangely enough, you can almost tell just by looking at the bottle. Flavors of lemon and apple accentuate this wine.
Francis Coppola, Bianco, California		2003	$16.
It's a dry blend of Chardonnay, Malvasia, Muscat, and Riesling perfect for aperitif sipping or pairing with lighter fare. You'll find a core of citrus and peach, along with pear, apple, melon, and herbs.
Bonny Doon, Pacific Rim Dry Riesling	Santa Cruz	2001/02	$15.
A Wine Enthusiast "Best Buy" at 89 points, this Riesling is has floral notes, a mineral-laden backbone, and plenty of honey and citrus notes ... The enjoyable finish is fruity and spicy.
Columbia Crest, Semillon-Chardonnay	Washington	2001	$14.
Semillon is a white varietal that can lend interesting toasty, grassy, citrus, and honeyed notes to a blend. This wine displays sophisticated lemon, pear, fig, and honey flavors.
Chateau Ste. Michelle, Gewurtztraminer	Washington	2002	$13.
An aromatic and spicy Columbia Valley white, with flavors of peach, grapefruit, rose, cinnamon, and nutmeg.
Columbia Crest, Johannisberg Riesling	Washington	2001/02	$12.
If you prefer your wine white and a bit sweeter, you may have met your match. It's nicely balanced, displaying both crispness and sweetness around a touch of grapefruit, apple, peach, and almond echoing with a nice soft finish. WS 86

Old World Whites

France and Italy Represented

Joseph Drouhin, Pouilly-Fuisse	Maconnais, France	2001/02	$36.
A great "alternative" for fine new-world Chardonnay drinkers, this white Burgundy from an exceptional producer is round and dry, with a delicious core of fruit, floral notes, and deep almond flavors.
Trimbach, Reserve Pinot Gris	Alsace, France	2001	$26.
Wonderful with spicy fare, this selection is smoothly balanced with notes of pear, apricot, and pepper with a firm finish reminiscent of grapefruit.
San Quirico, Vernaccia di San Gimignano	Tuscany, Italy	2001	$17.
Look, a tongue twister! ... This Italian white fits somewhere between Sauvignon blanc and Chardonnay. It starts light, crisp, and fruity, then fans into a heavier finish with a play of spice over the tongue.
Chateau de Montfort, Vouvray	Loire Valley, France	2002	$15.
Lush melon, honey, and citrus notes mingle with acidity and underlying dryness.

New World Cabernet Sauvignon & Bordeaux-Inspired Blends

Chalk Hill	Sonoma County	1999	$80.
This Cab is solid and elegant, with early aromas of green tobacco, and cedary flavors that fold in with anise and current notes. WS86.
Sena	Aconcagua Valley, Chile	2000	$65.
Well-endowed with a core of ripe raspberry and cassis fruit. A wonderful blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Carmenère . Wine Spectator Rated 92. Best value on the list!
Heitz Cellar	Napa Valley	2001	$60.
At Seasons, Heitz Cabs have always been popular. The has hints of earth, currant, anise, cedar, and plum and muscular tannins.
Stags Leap Winery	Napa Valley	2001	$56.
This wine is a consistent seller. The 1998 is austere and well-balance, packed with ripe flavors of currant, plum, coffee, chocolate, and sage. WS rated 87.
Gary Farrell	Sonoma County, Hillside Vineyard	2000	$50.
Rich and concentrated, with a sense of elegance and refinement to the ripe, spicy currant, blackberry and black cherry fruit, though it veers into earthy, sage flavors on the finish. Balanced tannins.
Robert Mondavi	Napa Valley	2001	$45.
The '00 Cabernet from this famous and reliable producer is WS rated 86, with herbal aromas and flavors of dill, currant, tobacco, and cedar.
Sterling	Napa Valley	2001	$38.
Cedar, currant, anise, and spice create the backbone of this cabernet. The finish is big, dry, and firm. Both vintages are Wine Spectator rated 88.
Beaulieu Vineyard (BV)	Napa Valley	2001	$30.
Cola, cherry, plum, and dill-laced oak are the highlight of this medium- to full-bodied beauty.
St. Francis	Sonoma County	2001	$28.
A firm structured Cabernet, with hints of plum, black currant, and herb. It is very approachable and smooth, with very mild tannins. WS 86
Greg Norman, Cabernet-Merlot	Coonawarra, Australia	2002	$27.
The 2002, from the Limestone Coast, with peppery blackberry, and lime notes playing into a long, velvety finish. WS rated 86
Estancia	Rutherford, California	2002	$24.
This va-voom selection is bold, with rich, smoky oak, licorice, and black currant flavors. The finish features approachable yet firm tannins.
Snoqualmie, Cabernet-Merlot	Washington	1999	$16.
This blend is quite a find, with spice, and mild fruit flavors with a plush finish. A perfect balance between the boldness of a cab and the soft fruit flavors of merlot. The '99 has a Wine Spectator rating of 86.

Special Selection Red Wines

Caymus, Cabernet Sauvignon	Napa Valley	2002	$95.
The soils of the Caymus vineyard are of a nature that the grapes have to become resilient to flourish. The final result is this Cabernet – a complex masterpiece with plum, wild berry, and currant flavors that roll into spicy oak finish. WS 93
Kenwood, Cabernet Sauvignon, Artist's Series	Sonoma	1995/96	$90.
This vintage is WE rated 93, and features tightly-wound – yet smooth -- licorice, cedar, currant, plum, raspberry, chocolate, and coffee flavors as well as firm, chewy tannins.
Opus One, Meritage (Half Bottle Only)	Napa Valley	2000	$90.
Bold and earthy, with concentrated anise, leather, mineral, berry, sage, and cedar notes. The '00 is WS rated 89.

Merlot

Of the New World Persuasion

Stags Leap Winery	Napa Valley	2000/01	$45.
One of our best-selling Merlots. Aromatics of herb, mint and menthol and finishing with light berry and plum Wine Spectator rated 83.
Antares	Sonoma County	2000	$39.
This Merlot is a class act ... It's simple, elegant, and wonderfully smooth. Ripe and rich, with generous flavors of chocolate, spice, and black cherry. Substantial, but amazingly lithe.
Chateau Ste. Michelle	Canoe Ridge, Washington	2001	$37.
From next door comes this single-vineyard beauty. The '01 is described as ripe, supple and distinctive for the bay leaf and olive character running through the black cherry and roasted meat flavors, finishing with fine, firm tannins. Wine Spectator rated 90
Dynamite	Sonoma North Coast	2001	$30.
Generous, with very fine concentration to wild berry, black cherry fresh herb and toasty oak flavors wrapped within a solid structure. Wine Spectator rated 87.
Blackstone	Napa Valley	2001/02	$27.
This vintage is full of herb-laced currant and cherry notes with firm cedary oak tannins to finish. The '01 is WS rated 86. The '02 is simple, but round, with currant, plum and herbal tones framed by vanilla. Wine Spectator rated 81
Ravensood	Vintner's Blend, Sonoma	2002	$22.
A very popular Merlot for a "house wine" price. Very dry, with plum, cherry, vanilla, soft spice, and oak -- you're sure to love it!
Columbia Crest	Grand Estates, Washington	2001	$18.
Ripe, plump and generous with its fresh cherry, dried cherry, dark plum and sweet spice flavors, nicely framed with toasty oak as the fruit persists impressively on the long finish. WS 90
Beringer	Founder's Estate, Napa	2000/01	$18.
A tried-and-true Merlot, this Beringer selection has focused cherry, peppery spice, cinnamon, cedar, and caramel notes. Wine Spectators 82

Other New World Reds

(Pinot Noir, Zinfandel, Shiraz, and Such)

Arrowood Syrah,	Russian River Valley, Saralee's Vineyard	2000	$55
This Syrah is packed with fruit, texture, and varietal character. Plush & fragrant, with supple blueberry, black cherry & white pepper flavors. Fresh herbs, loads of toasty oak and round tannins wrap around the finish. 89 points Wine & Spirits- 90 points Wine Advocate
Ridge, Geyserville	Sonoma	2000	$44.
Rich, with herb, earth, black cherry, blackberry, and mint notes and a warm and tannic finish. A blend of mostly Zinfandel, as well as Petite Sirah, Carignane, and Mataro. WS rated 88.
Ridge, Zinfandel	3 Valleys, Sonoma	2002	30.
Sturdy, intense and firmly tannic, this rustic style grows on you, with its mix of ripe berry fruit, hints of earth and herb and touches of sage and spice, ending with a touch of leather. Zinfandel, Carignane and Petite Sirah. WS 89
Acacia, Pinot Noir	Napa/Carneros	2001/02	$37.
Don't miss out! This pinot is always delicious ... Rich and full-bodied with dark ruby color, and flavors of black cherry and black berry ... Supple, silky, and loaded with spice.
St. Francis, Zinfandel	Old Vines, Sonoma	2001/02	$34.
2001- A slight sour cherry and leathery character that manages to hold focus. 2002 Cedar, coconut & vanilla flavors from toasty oak, with raspberry, black pepper and plum tones that finish with firm, tart tannins The "old vines" used to make this stellar Zin range from 50-80 years old or more.
Steele, Pinot Noir	Carneros	20002/03	$32.
From Jed Steele comes another popular Pinot Noir ... A medley of cola, black cherry, herb and olive notes. Smooth, with a persistent aftertaste and a touch of fresh earth and cedar.
Babcock, Syrah	Santa Barbara County	2001	$30.
This hearty red is smoky, with game and luscious fruit atop chewy tannins. Wine Enthusiast rated 90.
Rodney Strong, Zinfandel	Knotty Vines, Sonoma	1999/01	$25.
The Knotty Vines is full of big oak, smooth espresso, yummy chocolate, and zin-berry character. Wine Enthusiast rated 85. The '99 has round cherry and raspberry flavors with mocha & oak. WS rated 87.
Fattoria Enotria, Dolcetto	Mendocino, California	1999	$22.
If you prefer your wines no-fuss and compatible with food, this Old-Country medium bodied Italian-varietal red fits the bill. Racy acidity, soft red berry fruit, and ample tannins will do well with appropriate cuisine.
Penfold's, Shiraz-Cabernet	Koonunga Hill, Australia	2002	$18.
This blend is solid, with cherry, and spice notes finishing with a nice open texture. WS rated 85.
Rosemount, Shiraz	Southeast Australia	2002/02	$18.
Here's your answer! Ripe and juicy berry, cherry, vanilla, and spice balloon into a round finish. Wine Spectator rated 88.
Cline, Zinfandel	California	2002	$16.
Dark berry fruit, raisin, and spice are highlighted by warm vanillin oak and mild tannins. WS 83

"Wine is one of the most civilized things in the world ... and it offers a greater range for enjoyment and appreciation than, possibly, any other purely sensory thing."
Ernest Hemingway ~ Death in the Afternoon

Old World Reds

France and Italy Represented

Chateau de Beaucastel, Chateauneuf-du-Pape Rhone Valley, France 2001 $90.

300-year-old vines produce the 13 grape varieties – of them Mourvedre, Grenache, Cinsault, and Syrah – that create this luscious, spicy, and intense wine. Dark, extracted, fruit-driven blackberry, oak, plum, and game play into well-integrated tannins. Wine Spectator rated 90. Trade in your Cab and give this one a whirl!

Speri, Amarone della Valpolicella Classico Veneto, Italy 1998 $70.

To make Amarone, Corvina and Rondinella grapes are semi-dried on mats before pressing and fermentation, concentrating sugars and flavors in the final product. From Northeastern Italy, this selection is medium- to full-bodied, with lovely raisin, ripe berry, and chocolate flavors and fine tannins. Attn: CAB, MERLOT, ZIN LOVERS – Try this one if you love a rich red!

Louis Jadot, Beaune Theurons Beaune, France 1997 $55.

Kobrand imports writes that this red Burgundy, made from 100% pinot noir, “... is generally considered to be a quintessential premier cru, one of the dozen or so finest in the commune. It unites an aromatic bouquet, full body and ample structure with generous fruit flavors and an unusual delicacy on the palate, culminating in a lingering finish.”

Travaglini, Gattinara Piedmont, Italy 1998/99 $44.

From Northwestern Italy comes this delicious Nebbiolo-based wine ... Pretty, with plum and berry character and just a hint of spice. Medium- to full-bodied, with medium tannins and a fruity finish. Delicious. Wine Spectator rated 88.

Duhart Milon Rothschild for Chalone Pauillac, France 2000 $30.

This affordable Bordeaux is the fine product of a liaison between Chalone and Duhart Milon Rothschild; soft dark berry flavors, with hints of spice, cascade into a lithe finish.

Allegrini, Palazzo della Torre Veneto, Italy 2000 $29.

This medium- to full-bodied Italian red is made with classic Veneto region varietals (Corvina, Rondinella, Molinara) plus Sangiovese. The result is a mineral-laden, floral, fruity wine with austere tannins. WS rated 91.

Badia a Coltibuono, Chianti Classico Tuscany, Italy 2001/02 $28.

This wine has a bright and fruity nose and will bless your palate with good structure, balance, deep cherry flavor, and floral hints of violet and iris.

Chateau Greysac Medoc, France 1999 $27.

A simple, price-friendly Bordeaux with berry and mineral flavors. It finishes lightly with soft tannins.

Morgante, Nero D'Avola Sicily, Italy 2001/02 $18.

A “hot” wine from the climate of Sicily, this reliable value has medium body, jammy berry flavors, soft tannins, and a spicy finish.

“In Europe we thought of wine as something as healthy and normal as food and also a great giver of happiness and well being and delight. Drinking wine was not a snobbism nor a sign of sophistication nor a cult; it was as natural as eating and to me as necessary.”

Ernest Hemingway ~ A Moveable Feast