

Wines by the Glass

White Wines

Steele, Chardonnay Cuvee, Lake County, California 2004 $8. Bottle $30.

Ripe, rich butter, peach, brown sugar, and caramel give way to a toasty, citrus finish.

Caymus, Conundrum, Rutherford, California 2003 $8. Bottle $30.

Identifying the grape varietals included in this wine is a conundrum, or puzzle, to be explored and enjoyed.

Arnold Palmer Luna Vineyards 2004 $7. Bottle $26.

This wine was barrel fermented and aged in French Oak Barrels for twelve months. The result is a lush, creamy wine with aromas of toasted coconut and underlying flavors of citrus and ripe pear.

Hogue Cellars, Fume' Blanc, Washington 2004 $5. Bottle $18.

This crisp wine displays a round mouth-feel and bright fig, pear, and citrus flavors.

Mission Mountain, Johannisberg Riesling, WA/ID/MT 2004 $5. Bottle $16.

An off-dry selection made with Washington and Idaho grapes, bottled in Montana - notes of spice, apple, and peach.

Estancia, Pinot Grigio, 2004 $5. Bottle $16.

Wonderful intensity, vibrancy and purity of flavor, with zesty grapefruit, mineral, lemonade and peach flavors on a soft frame, with a zingy finish.

Red Wines

Kendall Jackson, Grand Reserve Cabernet, Santa Rosa 2002 $10. Bottle $40.

His "everyday" wines are always a hit, and this one soars above. Well-balanced, showcasing dusty currant, mineral, cedar and spicy, finishing with mild tannis. .

Dynamite, Cabernet Sonoma North Coast 2003 $8. Bottle $30.

This Cab is never a let-down. Blackberry, chocolate, and bing cherry flavors roll into a vanilla oak finish. WS rated 87.

Dynamite, Merlot, Sonoma North Coast 2003 $8. Bottle $30.

The '01 displays firm blackberry and currant flavors with oak and a little heat on the finish. Wine Spectator rated 87.

Ravenswood, Vintner's Blend Zinfandel, Sonoma 2003 $6. Bottle $22.

A popular Zin full of spice, mint, raspberry, and vanilla with game and oak notes. WS rated 86.

Echelon, Pinot Noir, Central Coast 2004 $6. Bottle $22.

A pretty Pinot Noir from California's Central Coast. This vintage is complex, yet fruit-forward, and complements a variety of foods.

Marietta, Old Vine Red Lot 39 California NV $5. Bottle $18.

A full-bodied, well-balanced beauty, with stunning dark purple color and a "supernose" of cherry, currant, and spice.

Rosemount, Grenache-Shiraz, South East Australia 2004 $5. Bottle $18.

Fresh and ripe, this palate-pleasing blend features spicy cherry flavors and cedar notes on the light finish.

Blush Wine

Beringer, White Zinfandel, Napa 2003 $4. Bottle $12.

A sweet and fruity selection with pleasant oak on the finish.

Sparkling Wine

Kenwood, Cuvee Brut, Yalupa, Sonoma-187 ml bottle NV Bottle $7.

Perfect for single-glass sipping.

Champagne and Sparkling Wines

Moet & Chandon, Dom Perignon	France	1998	$190.
When the occasion calls for something special, this classic is perfect. Intense, with flavors of citrus and hazelnut. Wine Spectator rated 93.
Mumm, Cuvee, DVX	Napa	1999	$60.
Intense and complex, with spicy pear, ginger, apple, and citrus flavors. Wine Spectator rated 88.
Domaine Chandon, Blanc de Noirs	Carneros	NV	$30.
Firm apple, citrus, pear, and herb are the focus of this sparkler, which also exhibits bright acidity and a creamy texture.
Domaine Ste. Michelle, Cuvee Brut	Washington	NV	$19.
Gentle and spicy, with notes of peach and earth.
Freixenet, Cordon Negro Brut	Spain	NV	$15.
Creamy vanilla and apple flavors give way to a slightly sweet finish. Luxury without the expense!

Dessert Wines

A lovely way to complement a dessert or simply end a great meal...

Bonny Doon, Muscat Vin de Glacier	California	2002	$30.
This indulgence has peach, fig, hazelnut and slight citrus flavors. Great alone or with dessert. (375 ml only)
Hogue Cellars, Late Harvest White Riesling	Washington	2004	$15.
Citrus, peach, and apricot flavors play on the tongue along with a generous mouthful of honey. While the Muscat wine above delivers the full "dessert wine" effect, this one is lighter and simpler. Perfect for dessert – or perfect with lighter desserts. (750 ml bottle)

We also offer a limited port and sherry selection.

Please inquire with your server.

Non-Alcohol Wines

Sutter Home Fre Chardonnay	California	2003	$12.
Sutter Home Fre White Zinfandel	California	2003	$12.

*"God in His goodness sent the grapes,
To cheer both great and small;
Little fools will drink too much,
And great fools not at all."*

~ Anonymous

Chardonnay

Of the New World Persuasion

Chalk Hill	Sonoma County	2002	$65.
One of our most popular Chardonnays! Offers elegant and complex toast, pear, pineapple, peach, vanilla, mineral, and juniper notes. WS 91
Cakebread Cellars	Napa Valley	2004	$60.
A new vintage ... Clean and refreshing, with a mix of apple, pear and persimmon. Holding a spicy note on the finish.
Grgich Hill	Napa Valley	2002	$60.
Crisp and refreshing with its zesty grapefruit, lemon-lime and tart pear flavors. It picks up a mineral and flinty taste on the finish. WS 87
Mer Soleil	Monterey Bay, Central Coast	2003	$54.
Our "king" Chardonnay in a new vintage. Lush and complex, with fig, pineapple, pear, citrus and oak that give way to an elegant and lingering finish.
Gary Farrell	Russian River Valley	2003	$50.
Lean and concentrated, with a tight band of green fig, lime, green apple and mineral flavors that end with a refreshing pebbly quality. WS rated 87
Chateau Ste Jean	Robert Young Reserve	2002	$40.
This renowned Chardonnay is from the superior Robert Young Vineyard in Alexander Valley. It is an intense spicy wine with melon, papaya, Bartlett pears, cinnamon and clove aromas with lead into a very rich viscous texture with vanilla and citrus flavors. WS 91
Acacia Chardonnay	Los Carneros, California	2003	$38.
Fresh and lively, with tasty ripe pear, citrus, tangerine and nectarine flavors that keep the focus on the fruit.
Frei Brothers	Russian River Ranches, Reserve	2003	$35.
Sleek and compact, with a vanilla aroma and a touch of citrus
Sonoma Cutrer	Russian River Ranches, Sonoma	2004	$30.
		Half Bottle	$15.
Aromas of ripe pear and pineapple ... tongue-tantalizing flavors of red apple, peach, apricot, and subtle oak.
Greg Norman Estates	Yarra Valley, Australia	2004	$25.
Fore! If golf is your game, this could be your Chardonnay. From The Shark himself comes this pleasant wine from Down Under. It's very elegant, with citrus, and apricot fruit emerging nicely as flavors persist, getting better with each sip. WS 88
Benziger	Carneros, California	2004	$24.
An across-the-board pleasant Chardonnay, loaded with creamy pear, fig, and oak with a long finish.
Kendall Jackson	Vintner's Reserve, Santa Rosa	2004	$24.
The quality of this Chardonnay is always consistent, and remains a perpetual pleaser.

*"... When you draw the wine, let there be in your heart a song for each cup;
And let there be in the song a remembrance for the autumn days,
and for the vineyard, and for the winepress."*

Kahlil Gibran ~ "Eating and Drinking," The Prophet

Other New World Whites

(Sauvignon Blanc, Riesling, Gewurztraminer, and Such)

King Estate, Pinot Gris Willamette Valley, Oregon 2003 $28.
Great with fresh fish entrees, this selection proves round, with spicy apple, pear, and melon notes.

Joseph Phelps, Pastiche California 2003 $20.
An enticing blend of Chardonnay, Scheurebe (a German cross-varietal of Sylvaner and Riesling), Riesling, Semillon, Marsanne, Viognier, and Muscat with hints of spicy peach, apricot, and fig. Nicely balanced with subtle sweetness. A must-try!

Chateau St. Jean, Fume' Blanc Sonoma County 2004 $20.
This light white from a famous producer is tangy with lemon, orange, passion fruit and nectarine flavors, ending with vanilla tones. VWS 86

Rodney Strong, Sauvignon Blanc, Charlotte's Home, Sonoma 2004 $20.
Signature grassy notes surround lemon, herb, gooseberry, and citrus, and vanilla flavors.

Geyser Peak, Sauvignon Blanc Sonoma County 2003 $20.
This Sauvignon Blanc is crisp, light, refreshing, and racy – strangely enough, you can almost tell just by looking at the bottle. Flavors of lemon and apple accentuate this wine.

Menage a Trois California 2005 $20.
Take a trip to the islands without worry of sunburn or bugs. It is a refreshing blend of citrus and tropical flavors with crisp acidity. A fun wine with or without food.

Bonny Doon, Pacific Rim Dry Riesling Santa Cruz 2003 $20.
A Wine Enthusiast "Best Buy" at 89 points, this Riesling is has floral notes, a mineral-laden backbone, and plenty of honey and citrus notes ... The enjoyable finish is fruity and spicy.

Columbia Crest, Semillon-Chardonnay Washington 2003 $14.
Semillon is a white varietal that can lend interesting toasty, grassy, citrus, and honeyed notes to a blend. This wine displays sophisticated lemon, pear, fig, and honey flavors.

Chateau Ste. Michelle, Gewurtztraminer Washington 2004 $13.
An aromatic and spicy Columbia Valley white, with flavors of peach, grapefruit, rose, cinnamon, and nutmeg.

Columbia Crest, Johannisberg Riesling Washington 2004 $12.
If you prefer your wine white and a bit sweeter, you may have met your match. It's nicely balanced, displaying both crispness and sweetness around a touch of grapefruit, apple, peach, and almond echoing with a nice soft finish. VWS 86

Old World Whites

France and Italy Represented

Joseph Drouhin, Pouilly-Fuisse Maconnais, France 2004 $36.
A great "alternative" for fine new-world Chardonnay drinkers, this white Burgundy from an exceptional producer is round and dry, with a delicious core of fruit, floral notes, and deep almond flavors.

Trimbach, Reserve Pinot Gris Alsace, France 2002 $31.
Wonderful with spicy fare, this selection is smoothly balanced with notes of pear, apricot, and pepper with a firm finish reminiscent of grapefruit.

San Quirico, Vernaccia di San Gimignano Tuscany, Italy 2002/03 $17.
Look, a tongue twister! ... This Italian white fits somewhere between Sauvignon blanc and Chardonnay. It starts light, crisp, and fruity, then fans into a heavier finish with a play of spice over the tongue.

Chateau de Montfort, Vouvray Loire Valley, France 2004 $25.
Lush melon, honey, and citrus notes mingle with acidity and underlying dryness.

New World Cabernet Sauvignon & Bordeaux-Inspired Blends

Chalk Hill	Sonoma County	2000	$95.
This Cab is solid and elegant, with early aromas of green tobacco, and cedary flavors that fold in with anise and current notes. WS88.
Sena	Aconcagua Valley, Chile	2000	$65.
Well-endowed with a core of ripe raspberry and cassis fruit. A wonderful blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Carmenère . Wine Spectator Rated 92. Best value on the list!
Heitz Cellar	Napa Valley	2001	$65.
At Seasons, Heitz Cabs have always been popular. The has hints of earth, currant, anise, cedar, and plum and muscular tannins.
Stags Leap Winery	Napa Valley	2002	$65.
This wine is a consistent seller. The Napa Cab layers black fruit notes with aromas of cola, clove, coffee and black pepper.
Gary Farrell	Sonoma County, Hillside Vineyard	2001	$55.
Rich and concentrated, with a sense of elegance and refinement to the ripe, spicy currant, blackberry and black cherry fruit, though it veers into earthy, sage flavors on the finish. Balanced tannins.
Seven Hills	Walla Walla Valley Reserve	2001	$50.
Aromatic and generous with its plum, currant and sweet spice flavors, finishing with fine, sinewy texture that lets the flavors last and last. Spicy Oak is nicely integrated WS 91
Sterling	Napa Valley	2002	$43.
Cedar, currant, anise, and spice create the backbone of this cabernet. The finish is big, dry, and firm.
Beaulieu Vineyard (BV)	Napa Valley	2002	$35.
Cola, cherry, plum, and dill-laced oak are the highlight of this medium- to full-bodied beauty.
St. Francis	Sonoma County	2002	$28.
A firm structured Cabernet, with hints of plum, black currant, and herb. It is very approachable and smooth, with very mild tannins.
Greg Norman, Cabernet-Merlot	Coonawarra, Australia	2002	$27.
The 2002, from the Limestone Coast, with peppery blackberry, and lime notes playing into a long, velvety finish. WS rated 86
Estancia	Rutherford, California	2003	$25.
This va-voom selection is bold, with rich, smoky oak, licorice, and black currant flavors. The finish features approachable yet firm tannins.
Snoqualmie, Cabernet-Merlot	Washington	2000	$16.
Dark blackberry and currant fruit with some chocolate notes. Some spice on the finish A perfect balance between the boldness of a cab and the soft fruit flavors of merlot.

Special Selection Red Wines

Caymus, Cabernet Sauvignon	Napa Valley	2003	$98
Intense, complex and concentrated, with a vibrant stack of flavors built around currant, blackberry and wild berry, with pretty oak nuances on the finish, along with ripe, firm tannins. WS 93
Kenwood, Cabernet Sauvignon, Artist's Series	Sonoma	1997	$90.
Firmly structured and sufficiently tannic to endure 10 years cellaring. This is a rich, complex, chunky young wine, with glimpses of currant and cherry, turning firm and tight on the finish.
Opus One, Meritage (Half Bottle Only)	Napa Valley	2000	$105.
Bold and earthy, with concentrated anise, leather, mineral, berry, sage, and cedar notes. The '00 is WS rated 89.

Merlot

Of the New World Persuasion

Stags Leap Winery	Napa Valley	2002	$50.
One of our best-selling Merlots. Aromatics of herb, mint and menthol and finishing with light berry and plum
Seven Hills	Walla Walla Valley	2002	$40.
Wild Raucous flavors on a racy frame, finishing with a distinct floral character. Out of the main stream, which keeps it interesting.
Antares	Sonoma County	2000	$40.
This Merlot is a class act ... It's simple, elegant, and wonderfully smooth. Ripe and rich, with generous flavors of chocolate, spice, and black cherry. Substantial, but amazingly lithe.
Chateau Ste. Michelle	Canoe Ridge, Washington	2002	$37.
From next door comes this single-vineyard beauty. The '01 is described as ripe, supple and distinctive for the bay leaf and olive character running through the black cherry and roasted meat flavors, finishing with fine, firm tannins. Wine Spectator rated 90
Blackstone	Napa Valley	2002	$30.
This vintage is full of herb-laced currant and cherry notes with firm cedary oak tannins to finish. The '01 is WS rated 86. The '02 is simple, but round, with currant, plum and herbal tones framed by vanilla. Wine Spectator rated 81
Ravensood	Vintner's Blend, Sonoma	2003	$22.
A very popular Merlot for a "house wine" price. Very dry, with plum, cherry, vanilla, soft spice, and oak -- you're sure to love it!
Columbia Crest	Grand Estates, Washington	2002	$20.
Ripe, plump and generous with its fresh cherry, dried cherry, dark plum and sweet spice flavors, nicely framed with toasty oak as the fruit persists impressively on the long finish. WS 90
Beringer	Founder's Estate, Napa	2002	$20.
A tried-and-true Merlot, this Beringer selection has focused cherry, peppery spice, cinnamon, cedar, and caramel notes. Wine Spectators 82

Other New World Reds

(Pinot Noir, Zinfandel, Shiraz, and Such)

Arrowood Syrah,	Russian River Valley, Saralee's Vineyard	2000	$55
This Syrah is packed with fruit, texture, and varietal character. Plush & fragrant, with supple blueberry, black cherry & white pepper flavors. Fresh herbs, loads of toasty oak and round tannins wrap around the finish. 89 points Wine & Spirits- 90 points Wine Advocate
Ridge, Geyserville	Sonoma	2003	$48.
Rich, with herb, earth, black cherry, blackberry, and mint notes and a warm and tannic finish. A blend of mostly Zinfandel, as well as Petite Sirah, Carignane, and Mataro. WS rated 88.
Acacia, Pinot Noir	Napa/Carneros	2004	$37.
Don't miss out! This pinot is always delicious ... Rich and full-bodied with dark ruby color, and flavors of black cherry and black berry ... Supple, silky, and loaded with spice.
Ridge, Zinfandel	3 Valleys, Sonoma	2003	35.
Sturdy, intense and firmly tannic, this rustic style grows on you, with its mix of ripe berry fruit, hints of earth and herb and touches of sage and spice, ending with a touch of leather. Zinfandel, Carignane and Petite Sirah. VWS 89
St. Francis, Zinfandel	Old Vines, Sonoma	2003	$34.
Dominated by cedar, coconut and vanilla flavors from toasty oak, with raspberry, black pepper and plum tones that finish with firm, tart tannins. The "old vines" used to make this stellar Zin range from 50-80 years old or more.
Steele, Pinot Noir	Carneros	2004	$34.
From Jed Steele comes another popular Pinot Noir ... A medley of cola, black cherry, herb and olive notes. Smooth, with a persistent aftertaste and a touch of fresh earth and cedar.
Steele, Syrah	Lake County, Writer's Block	2002	$30.
This hearty red is smoky, with game and luscious fruit atop chewy tannins. Wine Enthusiast rated 90.
Rodney Strong, Zinfandel	Knotty Vines, Sonoma	2000/01	$28.
The Knotty Vines Dominated by toasty oak character of cedar and vanilla, with modest tannin framing berry and plum notes.
Fattoria Enotria, Dolcetto	Mendocino, California	1999	$22.
If you prefer your wines no-fuss and compatible with food, this Old-Country medium bodied Italian-varietal red fits the bill. Racy acidity, soft red berry fruit, and ample tannins will do well with appropriate cuisine.
Penfold's, Shiraz-Cabernet	Koonunga Hill, Australia	2002	$20.
This blend is solid, with cherry, and spice notes finishing with a nice open texture. WS rated 85.
Rosemount, Shiraz	Southeast Australia	2002/03	$20.
Here's your answer! Ripe and juicy berry, cherry, vanilla, and spice balloon into a round finish. Wine Spectator rated 88.
Cline, Zinfandel	California	2004	$18.
Dark berry fruit, raisin, and spice are highlighted by warm vanillin oak and mild tannins. WS 83

*"Wine is one of the most civilized things in the world ... and it offers a greater range for enjoyment and appreciation than, possibly, any other purely sensory thing."
Ernest Hemingway ~ Death in the Afternoon*

Old World Reds

France and Italy Represented

Chateau de Beaucastel, Chateauneuf-du-Pape Rhone Valley, France 2001 $120.
300-year-old vines produce the 13 grape varieties – of them Mourvedre, Grenache, Cinsault, and Syrah – that create this luscious, spicy, and intense wine. Ripe and fleshy, with lots of black cherry, plum, anise and tar flavors riding along a succulent palate. Sweet and velvety on the finish; Wine Spectator rated 91. Trade in your Cab and give this one a whirl!

Zenato, Amarone della Valpolicella Classico Veneto, Italy 2000 $85.
Enticing aromas of slightly raisiny fruit, with spices and wet stone. Full-bodied, with a fresh, fruity palate, a good mineral backbone and a long finish

Louis Jadot, Beaune Theurons Beaune, France 1997 $55.
Kobrand imports writes that this red Burgundy, made from 100% pinot noir, “... is generally considered to be a quintessential premier cru, one of the dozen or so finest in the commune. It unites an aromatic bouquet, full body and ample structure with generous fruit flavors and an unusual delicacy on the palate, culminating in a lingering finish.”

Travaglini, Gattinara Piedmont, Italy 2000 $44.
From Northwestern Italy comes this delicious Nebbiolo-based wine ... Clean and fruity, with mineral and berry character. Medium- to full-bodied, with silky tannins and a medium finish. This is always a good value. Delicious. Wine Spectator rated 89.

Allegrini, Palazzo della Torre Veneto, Italy 2001 $38.
This medium- to full-bodied Italian red is made with classic Veneto region varietals (Corvina, Rondinella, Molinara) plus Sangiovese. The result is a mineral-laden, floral, fruity wine with austere tannins. VWS rated 91.

Castellare di Castellina, Chianti Classico Tuscany, Italy 2003 $36.
This wine has a bright and fruity nose and will bless your palate with good structure, balance, deep cherry flavor, and floral hints of violet and iris.

Duhart Milon Rothschild, Pauillac, Bordeaux, France 1999 $30.
This affordable Bordeaux is the fine product of a liaison between Chalone and Duhart Milon Rothschild; soft dark berry flavors, with hints of spice, cascade into a lithe finish.

Chateau Greysac Medoc, France 2000 $27.
A simple, price-friendly Bordeaux with berry and mineral flavors. It finishes lightly with soft tannins.

Morgante, Nero D'Avola Sicily, Italy 2002 $18.
A “hot” wine from the climate of Sicily, this reliable value has medium body, jammy berry flavors, soft tannins, and a spicy finish.

“In Europe we thought of wine as something as healthy and normal as food and also a great giver of happiness and well being and delight. Drinking wine was not a snobbism nor a sign of sophistication nor a cult; it was as natural as eating and to me as necessary.”

Ernest Hemingway ~ A Moveable Feast